ISSUANCE OF NAMIBIAN NATIONAL DOCUMENTS

This circular serves to inform all Namibian students who are studying in the Russian Federation, Belarus and Ukraine that as from today, 11 June 2019, all Namibian National Documents will be applied in person at this Embassy.

The Embassy as facilitator of processing the applications of national documents, is acting on the instruction from the custodian office which is the Ministry of Home Affairs and Immigration to not process any application in the absence of the applicant.

For authentication purposes, the applicant needs to bring along the copies and original of National documents required as supporting documents for such application. For example, passport application, original and copies for Identification Document, Birth Certificate and three (3) passport photos should be provided.
